

RNC Association Congratulate New Chief of Police Bill Janes

For immediate release: February 28, 2014

(St. John's, NL) – The RNC Association is pleased to congratulate former Deputy Chief Bill Janes on today's announcement of his appointment as Chief of the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary. Chief Janes will be replacing retiring Chief Robert Johnston as the twenty-first Chief of the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary.

RNC Association President Warren Sullivan states, "On behalf of the RNC Association, I wish to extend our congratulations to Chief Bill Janes on his appointment as Chief of the Royal Newfoundland Constabulary. I look forward to continuing to work with the Chief of Police and his delegates to enhance the working conditions and lives of RNC officers. I also wish to extend our sincere best wishes to retiring Chief Johnston and thank him for his many years of service in the RNC."
